St.Valentines Day,1995

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is a male bomb containing leaky rubbers that are no good for f_{ing} along with several parables. First according to parable, they were allegedly obtained according to contact from achinaman, Trevor Foh, who accused Large

Mountain Goat of stealing more rubbers than he had. One Wiley Coyote of the Just Us club kept his cool and never lost his head because it was attached and punished Large Mountain Goat. However, his ass like everyone in the Just Us club wasn't attached and they all lost theirs. This seems ludicrous and it probably is, even though true, but Donald Duck just loves the ludicrous

Once upon a time Large Mountain Goat was charged by a peacock. The goat was accused of lying in two different stalls. He was accused of lying with a pig in a poke and he was accused of playing 4 goat poker with only 2 goats in the stall. A jury was selected composed of members or their relatives who worked the the state of euphoria including Billy Goat's mother. The peacock presented the evidence and wanting to incense the jury repeated three lies. First, he claimed the mountain goat was making many quarters in stalls surrounded by water and not paying taxes on it. Next he claimed the mountain owed three quarters for taxes. Finally, he said that the mountain goat owed another three quarters to a foe for stealing rubbers, three weeks before anyone else found out. Of course this incensed the jury and the mountain goat was locked in a stall for many months. Of course, Coal Black, the reporter covering the event, cleverly removed such references from the report. Such an idea seems ludricous, though true.

Once upon a time a chinaman named Trevor Foh had a rubber factory making adult protection for millions. At first he had a silent partner to whom he had advanced most of his inventory of rubbers. This partner was crooked and not only cheated the chinaman but also many others amounting to several millions which the state of Flowery Doe wanted to prosecute. But this silent partner had a secret agreement with the Just Us club and the charges were dropped. Mr. Foh's business seemed to boom and he had orders for up to 180,000 rubbers but couldn't deliver as he had speculated in pre-fabricated rubbers and lost it all. To explain his loss, he had his rubber foreman testify that mountain goat stole the rubbers that the silent partner had already stolen. Later, Mr Foh used this to help the Just Us club. All seemed to go well until Mr Foh was found to have dumped cyanide from the production of rubbers. He seemed to be in big trouble, and Billy Goat, overseeing affairs for the Equal Protection Agency wanted to put Mr Foh out of business. But because Billy Goat's mother helped lock the mountain goat in a stall for months, this was eventually prevented. This seems ludicrous, though true.

Once upon a time, large mountain goat was scheduled to attend ax court. However, the mountain goat was stubborn and refused as he perceived they had plans to slaughter the goat. In retaliation, because the mountain goat was such a pain in the butt, the Just Us club agreed to remove all of the goat's ass itch and agreed to hire enough animals to do the job.

Once upon a time, Donald Duck hired Bullwinkle to help lock an ape named Corruption in a stall. Bullwinkle however informed the ape of the plot. The ape complained to a Thorn Bird who refused to pursue the matter. The ape revealed the plot on National Radio whereupon Donald Duck responded on radio that such an idea was ludicrous.

Once upon a time, Donald Duck hired Bullwinkle to mine Large Mountain Goat and in other ways clean out the mountain goat of valuables. Donald Duck assisted by Barney charged large mountain goat with polluting the environment. Bullwinkle was convicted, large mountain goat was eventually acquitted. Bullwinkle complained about being penned up so Donald Duck either arranged a homicide to remove Bullwinkle or a fake homicide to allow him to roam free. Such an idea seems ludicrous, though true.

Once upon a time Zoa brought Mot a OUIJA board to foretell the future. Zoa asked how much her first husband would have. It said 10 million dollars. Wanting to impress Mot, Zoa asked again and it said 15 million dollars and that Zoa would get 0 of it. Then it was asked how much Mot would have and it said 2 Trillion dollars. Lastly it was asked who is behind the OUIJA board and it spelled out DEVIL and the thing on the OUIJA board flew like a bat out of hell across the room. It was easy to explain: Getting 2 trillion dollars is no harder than rising from the dead, which Mot (his very name means death) did 5 years later. Such an idea seems ludicrous though true.

Sometime later, Mot was approached by a Gypsy who wished to tell Mot his fortune for a dollar. However, after looking at her palms, she looked at Mot like a creature from another planet and waled up to Mot apologizing that she just couldn't tell Mot his fortune whereupon she offered to guess his weight or age, but was unable to even come close to actual. The strange look can be explained as there is no stopping for planets or stars while moving at the speed of light after death but only can be stopped by a white flash of light known as the finger of God which can then raise the dead in about one second.

P.S. it seems Zoa's first husband spent 40 years in Napoleon's prison cell for Drugs, Cyanide and Murder and where in all likelihood Mot kicks in his face and teeth saying you don't have to be a butcher to know a good piece of meat.

The first morale of the parables is to be on the alert for a 15 million dollar murderer but fear someone with 2 trillion dollars for as the former can kill dozens daily for weeks, the latter can execute millions daily for years and make Hitler look like a Sunday School teacher.

The second morale of the parables is that you don't have to be a good chess player to win if you can do the impossible. Hence if one can transform pawns into kings; transform players into angels of light or just another color; transfer players beneath the board and pounce on kings from beneath; have players fly or just rise from the dead.

The third morale of the story is if a mountain goat won't even associate with a chinaman like Trevor Foh, no one else should especially members of the Just Us club.

The fourth morale of the parables is sometimes the lowly are exalted to high positions. For example, that dreamer Joseph in the Bible was sold into slavery, thrown into prison and yet wound up being second in the kingdom

The fifth morale of the story is that one should not commit suicide by jumping in front of a two trillion dollar Mac Truck. If one wants to commit suicide, one should jump in front of a car. The impact will be less and the liklihood of being hit by a Mac Truck is slimmer than a car as a truck driver is more experienced and will probably swerve and miss.

The last morale is it is better to tolerate a pain in the butt than to suffer HEART FAILURE.
